

Crystal McGrath is a Country Pop recording artist and songwriter from Calgary, Alberta. In September 2019, she released the Room to Breathe EP, and her latest release “Game On” inspired by artists such as Maren Morris, Carrie Underwood and Christina Aguilera is out September 2020.

“Game On” is a song to empower women to go after what they want, whether it be a dance at a club or going after the CEO position of a company. Produced by Juno- Award Winning Producer Spencer Cheyne(Brett Kissell, Jocelyn Alice), it is a feel good get up and dance anthem with country pop fusion making listeners want to hit repeat.

Crystal is an advocate for women's empowerment and believes in the importance of using your voice and going after your goals in life. She is also the founder of “Live With Love” an online movement and mindset platform providing tools for women to live their best lives. Crystal has partnered with Indigo to bring her movement, mindset and music coaching as a part of their digital experience offerings.

She also hosts the podcast Crushing Chaos, sharing inspiring stories from women around the world on how they push through resistance in their personal and professional lives.

No stranger to the stage, Crystal has performed all around the world including gigs in Canada, USA, Mexico, UK, and Australia. She has shared the stage with Canadian Country heavyweights George Canyon and Aaron Pritchett to name a few.

In November 2019, Crystal was invited to participate in Canada’s Music Incubator’s Artist Entrepreneur West professional development program at the National Music Centre, where she spent five-weeks developing her business.

You can catch Crystal weekly hosting her Instagram live series “The Artists behind the music” Interviewing Canadian Country Artists, as they share about their musical journey and how they crush fear, followed by an original song performance by the featured guest.
